Clean '15 Biggest Show in Years

Busy Booth at Clean '15.

What a show! This Clean show broke attendance records and we're proud and grateful to report that it felt like most of the attendees were in our booth. Warm thanks to everyone who stopped in to see our new products and say hello. We always enjoy the opportunity to see old friends and colleagues. For those of you we missed in Atlanta, we hope to see you in Las Vegas, and here are some highlights:

A Masterful Pairing

Yes, that's David Tingue with Masters champ Jordan Spieth. "I just gave him a few pointers and helped him with his confidence," said our CEO ;-)

Why change our name to MODRoto? This division's reputation as the pioneer in designing and manufacturing top quality laundry carts is well-earned. But did you know the company also ranks as the 16th largest plastics rotational molder in North America by Plastics News? And that its custom rotomolding customers include Titleist, Callaway, Toro, Hobie, and hundreds more? And that most of your laundry carts were manufactured on the most sophisticated, automated, rotational molding system in the world?

The MODRoto name brings rotomolding to the forefront and stays true to the Meese, Orbitron and Dunne heritage companies.

Next Up for Team Tingue

"It's always great to catch up with our customers and friends in the industry, whether it's a big show like Clean '15, a regional event or an educational program," says Acton. "We were pleased to be a part of such a popular and productive show. We look forward to seeing many of you again at various industry events in the future, including the TRSA Annual Conference."
